THE TARIFF BILL.

The House Goes Into a Committee of the Whole to Consider the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The house has just went into a committee of the whole (Springer, of Illinois, in the chair) for the consideration of the tariff bill. No opposition was made to Mr. Mills' motion to this effect.

THE WAITE FUND.

The fund that has been started for the widow of the late Chief Justice Waite has already reached generous proportions, $10,000 having been subscribed without solicitation. If the amount reaches $100,000 it will be invested as a permanent fund, the interest to go to Mrs. Waite. If it should not reach that figure the subscriptions will be collected and given to her in cash.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

The presence in Washington of Judge William S. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, has given rise to rumor that he has been called here by the president to receive a tender of the chief justiceship. Judge Groesbeck's appointment is one which would give general satisfaction. He is a lawyer of the highest excellence; of national reputation; was prominent as one of President Johnson's counsel in the impeachment trial, and is at the age of sixty as vigorous and young looking as he was in that memorable trial twenty years ago.

MR. MILLS CLOSES.

Mr. Mills closed his speech on the tariff bill amid loud applause at 2:50 and Mr. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, took the floor to reply.

MAKING IT HOT FOR GAMBLERS.

Numerous Arrests Growing Out of One Family's Misfortune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 17.—The Citizens' League of this city is waging a vigorous war on the gamblers who have been running open houses, without interference on the part of the police, since Mayor Charles E. Hay was elected a year ago. Not long ago a butcher lost everything he had in one of the rooms, and left his wife, with four little children, in very destitute circumstances.

She appealed to the mayor and chief of police, but was dismissed with the information that they were not lawyers and couldn't get her money for her and that she had better go home. About this time the Citizens' league got wind of the story and it at once began to push the case, with a success that, so far has been truly marvelous.

They have succeed in placing under arrest six of the leading gambling house keepers of the city and subpoenaed thirty citizens as witnesses, among whom are said to be prominent city officials and business men. Some of the witnesses are going the rounds of the local papers trying to have their names suppressed.

The affair has caused a good deal of talk already, and if reports are anywhere near true it will create a great sensation when the cases are called, and more than one unsuspecting wife will have her eyes opened to the fact that the wicked "tiger" and not legitimate business has been detaining her husband out so late at night.

AN ENGINE OF DEATH.

The Dynamite Crusier Gun Boat to be Launched for the United States Navy.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The Wm. Cramp & Sons' Ship and Engine Building company have nearly completed a dynamite cruiser gun boat, called Yorktown, designed for the United States navy. It will be launched Saturday, April 28, in the presence of Secretary Whitney.

It carries four pneumatic guns for hurling dynamite projectiles, with a range of at least a mile. The training of the guns is accomplished by steering the vessel, and the loading is all done by steam. The guns are fifteen-inch calibre and the shells, which can be fired with great accuracy twice a minute, will contain 800 pounds of explosive gelatine, equivalent to 852 pounds of dynamite.

It is claimed if this gun is properly handled it will be the most destructive engine of war yet invented, for the heaviest armored ships in the world will go to pieces from the explosion of a shell much smaller than those thrown by the guns on Yorktown.

The Wealth of the Jews.

NEW YORK, April 17,—Isaac Markens, who is connected with the New York Press, will issue to-morrow his history of "The Hebrews in America." The work shows that there are 400,000 Jews in this country, 125,000 of whom are in New York. They control $150,000,000 worth of real estate property in this city and represent 6,000,000 in the cotton exchange. Their annual transactions in leading lines of trade in New York foot up $248,000,000 annually.

A Gresham Delegation.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 17.—At a mass meeting of republicans of Lafayette, yesterday, the following gentlemen were chosen delegates to the convention to nominate four delegates from the state at large to attend the national convention: George W. Friedley, Mordecai Peck, Austin L. Kumbler and B. F. Masten. The entire delegation is for Gresham.

THE EMPEROR!

Germany's Ruler is Still in a Feverish Condition and is Visited by the Crown Prince.

BERLIN, April 17.—The emperor passed a somewhat quieter night. The crown prince and Prince Henry remained at the castle all night. There was no change at 11:50 a. m., in the feverish condition of the emperor. His majesty was visited for a short time early this morning by the crown prince.

2:15 P. M.—Emperor Frederick now feels better. He rose shortly after 11, and afterwards appeared at the window of his bedroom. The fever is abating and his appetite has improved. His respiration is also improved. There is a more hopeful feeling beginning to prevail. The consultation of the physicians this morning is reported to have resulted in an agreement that there is no inflammation of the bowels and bronchitis is abating.

At 4 p. m. the physicians issued the following bulletin: "Symptoms of bronchitis have considerably diminished since yesterday and fever has abated. The emperor passed a better night and his general condition is satisfactory.

GENERAL BOULANGER.

PARIS, April 17.—Small crowds paraded in portions of Paris last night, cheering for General Boulanger. The police dispersed them without trouble. The Journal des Debats says: The election of General Boulanger in the Department of the Nord shows the country is wearied out and profoundly disgusted with the conduct and policy of the government.

The majority of the electors it says can no longer endure the government which does not govern, but leaves the country a prey to the vacillations and dissensions of politicians and the tyranny of electoral committees.

VIENNA, April 17.—The military committee of the reichsrath has adopted without modification a bill to authorize the summoning of reserves and supplemental reserves in time of peace under certain circumstances. The minister of national defense, in addressing the committee, declared the bill was only intended to apply under exceptional circumstances, justifying such measure.

A CELEBRATED CASE.

The Sudden Death of Mrs. Caswell Recalls a Celebrated Case.

MONTICELLO, Ill., April 17.—The sudden death of Mrs. A. M. Caswell, at Brooklyn, New York, from a stroke of paralysis, ends one of the most celebrated cases of litigation on record. Her husband, Daniel H. Caswell, deserted her in 1863, and in 1860 made application for a divorce in the Piatt county circuit court, which was granted.

In January, 1869, Caswell married Miss Louisa C. Broodwell, of Ohio, by whom there has been born six children. In 1886, at the February term, Mrs. A. M. Caswell entered suit in the Piatt county circuit court to have the divorce impeached and set aside after the decree had been granted seventeen years. She was successful and the divorce was revoked by the court.

Caswell carried the case up to the appellate and supreme courts of Illinois, both of which sustained the Piatt county court, making Mr. Caswell's marriage with Miss Broodwell null and void and illegitimate. Mr. Caswell lives at Nashville, Tenn., where his first wife, Mrs. A. M. Caswell, had instituted suit in the courts for a divorce and alimony, and the death of Mrs. Caswell will end this suit, but he will have to marry his present companion to make her his legal wife.

No Labor Ticket in New York.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Peter R. Gatens, the secretary of the county general committee of the United Labor party, denounces the attempt to make the party a tender to the republican machine. He says the labor men will not help to defeat a democratic president unless the party managers feel sure that a labor man has reasonably sure chances of winning. The labor men will not place a ticket in the field.

Railroad Directors Elected.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 17.—The following have been elected members of the board of directors of the Ohio Southern railroad: Alfred Sully, Austin Corbin, J. R. Maxwell, Henry Graves, Dumont Clark, R. K. Dow, of New York, Wm. N. Whitely, Amos Whitely and H. L. Chapman, of Springfield, H. S. Hillard, of Wellston, Isaac Brown, of Jackson, and H. H. Weakley, of New Carlisle.

Electricity in a Well.

LEBANON, Mo., April 17.—The piping of an artesian well here is so heavily charged with electricity that small bits of steel adhere to it wherever they touch it. The well is 1,200 feet deep, the water rising in it nearly 1,000 feet, and the pipe extends down some 300 feet.

Similarity in Suicides.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—Delia Keenan, aged sixteen years, and Amer Hurley, both lying on James street, within two blocks of each other, took carbolic acid and died in a few hours. The cause of Hurley's case was matrimonial troubles, while the motive of the girl was not brought to light.

The Elections.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—All places of business are closed as on Sunday. The election is progressing quietly.

"NOT SO WELL,"

Is the Report the Doctor Brings From the Sick Room of Mr. Conkling This Morning.

NEW YORK, April 17.—At 9:15 Dr. Barker called on Mr. Conkling and remained with him for three-quarters of an hour. When he came out the doctor said: "Mr. Conkling is not so well this morning. Both bronchitis and subsalts have disappeared. He is not so clear-minded as he was last night. He has taken forty ounces of nourishment, principally milk. His pulse is 98, temperature 100. I found it absolutely necessary to give him active medicine."

At 11:20 this morning the head porter Otcole who has been much in the sick-room, expressed the opinion that from the talk current in the room Mr. Conkling will not live throughout to-night. He thinks, however, there is no danger during the day. The patient is growing steadily weaker and at present is lying in a stupor.

At 12:45 o'clock, Dr. Watson, of Utica, Conkling's old family physician, upon leaving the sick room, declined to express any opinion, as Dr. Barker has charge of the case. "But," he added, "I will say that Mr. Conkling is certainly no better to-day."

THE LATEST.

NEW YORK, April 17—4 p. m.—Dr. Barker called at Mr. Conkling's and remained until 3:40. Upon coming out he said: "Mr. Conkling since 12:30 has developed edema of the lungs, which is settling the blood in the base of his lungs, and he will probably die before morning."

Stolen Jewelry From Paris.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Surveyor of the Port Campbell has issued orders to the custom officers to be extra vigilant in examining the baggage of passengers on incoming steamers. Recently a large quantity of jewelry was stolen from Messrs. Rollin & Fensident, of Paris, and is supposed to be on its way to this country and may arrive at this port.

The intrinsic value of the jewelry amounts to $60,000 and is mostly in diamonds. If it arrives here it will be detained.

In Honor of Grant.

NEW YORK, April 17.—General Sherman is confident that the banquet at Delmonico's, that he is getting up to celebrate General Grant's birthday, on April 27 will be a success. Chauncey M. Depew will be the principal speaker, and all the prominent Confederate generals living, Johnston, Longstreet, Mahone, Lee, Gordon, Buckner, and Mosby, will be present and make addresses. The price of tickets has been placed at $20.

Solid for Matson.

VALPARAISO, April 17.—The following are the delegates to the democratic state convention: D. F. Skinner, H. P. Brown, S. P. Corboy, G. C. Morgan, P. A. Hallburg, John Wilson, L. W. Pierce and R. M. Boone. The delegation is solid for Matson for governor.

Sherman Men.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—The First Ohio district republican convention elected Hon. Amer Smith and Frank A. Tucker delegates to the Chicago convention; Second district, Charles Howard Ferris and Dr. T. W. Graydon. All are understood to be in favor of the nomination of John Sherman.

Over a Calf.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—During a dispute at Pearl Station, near Whitehall, Ill., between Robert McEvers and Wm. Howard Garrison, cousins, over a calf owned by McEvers, the latter was stabbed five times by Howard Garrison and instantly killed.

Railroad Man Dead.

MALDEN, Mass., April 17.—William Merritt, for a number of years superintendent on the Boston and Maine railroad, died at his home, in East Somerville, aged about eighty years. The deceased was well known in railroad circles.

Died from His Wounds.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Daniel Brasset, the Chicago and Alton watchman, who was shot April 3, by tramps who were attempting to steal a ride, died at the county hospital this morning.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Indiana: Threatening weather, light rains, followed by colder, fair weather.

Death of a Banker.

LONDON, April 17.—Mr. John Baring, the banker, is dead.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Wheat, easier, at 81½c. Corn, firmer at 55½c. Oats, firmer; May 33½c. Rye, 61½c. May. Prime timothy, $2.66. Flaxseed, $1.45. Whisky, $1.15. Pork, steady, at $14.15. Lard, easier, at $7.70. Spare ribs $7 20.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Hogs, receipts, 27,000; fairly active, but prices weak and 15c to 20c lower; heavy packing, and shipping, $5.40@5.65. Cattle, receipts, 7,000; steady to strong; beeves, $3.65@5.10. Sheep, receipts, 5,000; active, higher; choice, westerns and natives, $6@6.50; lambs, $5.@6.75.

The best shoes in the market can now be obtained at the administrator's sale of the Jacobs Shoe Store, 17 Calhoun street, at less than manufacturers' cost.

THE BREWERS.

They Go On a Strike in a Cincinnati Brewery and a General Lockout is Feared.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—The conditions are favorable for a general lockout here of the brewers, Moerlein having refused to reinstate a man at the request of his fellow-workmen. They struck and their action was ratified last night by the Brewers' union, which declared an immediate boycott on Moerlein's beer.

The boss brewers, in anticipation of this, some days ago resolved to stand together in case any one was boycotted.

In reply to this resolution one of Moerlein's customers, who this morning stopped taking Moerlein's beer and tried to buy elsewhere, was refused. Both sides are confident of a conquest.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The second day of the strike of the brewers opened with both employers and employes as determined as ever. Secretary Seiffert, of the Brewers' association, said the brewers are getting all the men they wanted and the strike will be a short lived one.

The journeymen's contract has been signed by Schmidt and Schwannanfleigel, of New York, the brewers and members of the association. This is the first break in the employers' ranks.

A Levee Gives Away.

GREENVILLE, Miss., April 17.—News has been received from Leoto, Miss., to the effect that the levee, one mile south of Grand Lake, Ark., gave away yesterday and that the water is now running with terrific force through the gap, which is more than 200 feet wide. It is very rapidly widening.

THE annual return to Parliament of the British Inland Revenue office, covering the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1887, has just been made, and gives the following figures concerning the manufacture of malt liquors: The total number of persons licensed to brew malt liquors in the United Kingdom was 13,755, against 14,166 for 1886, a decrease of 411. Of this number 11,716 brewed less than 1,000 barrels, 1,583 brewed over 1,000 and under 10,000, and 271 brewed over 10,000 and less than 20,000, leaving 505 as brewing more than 20,000 barrels. Three concerns brewed over 200,000 barrels, 2 over 250,000, 1 over 300,000, 2 over 350,000, 1 over 400,000, 1 over 450,000, 1 over 500,000, 2 between 600,000 and 1,000,000, and 1—Guinness & Co., of Dublin—over 1,000,000 barrels, the total brew of this colossal concern being given as 1,448,368 barrels, an increase of about 90,000 barrels on last year's brewing. The revenue obtained from the entire trade was in round figures $42,993,058. The quantity of materials used was 52,319,027 bushels of malt and corn, and 1,495,939¼ hundred-weight of sugar, including its equivalent of sirups. The total exports of malt liquor from Great Britain and Ireland for the year aggregated 424,366 barrels, valued at $7,875,464, an increase of 1,907 barrels over the previous year's figures.

The divorce case of Magdaline Keller vs. Casper Keller was dismissed.

R. Minta Houghston was granted a divorce from John Houghston.

The divorce case of John G. Hettler vs. Harriet Hettler is on trial.

Anna Tyler vs. Fred Tyler. Divorce granted plaintiff.

FATHER TAAFE, who has been a Catholic priest at Flemingsburg, Ky., two years, has apparently become temporarily deranged by smoking cigarettes, says a Louisville paper. He recently confessed a misdemeanor and paid a fine to escape scandal, as he said. Inquiry showed he had committed no misdemeanor. Father Hickey, of Maysley, hearing this, called on Taafe, who denied having paid any fine. Even when confronted with the evidence, he remembered nothing of it. Taafe had been smoking cigarettes very freely, sometimes a hundred a day, and it is feared it will be necessary to take him to an infirmary.

THE cost of electric lighting in the different cities of the United States which use it varies widely. The cost per light per year is highest in Savannah and Nashville, being $255. Boston and Washington pay $237.25; Montgomery, Ala., and Springfield, Mass., $219; Cambridge, Philadelphia, Worcester, Mass., and Kansas City, $200, and Detroit 188.70. Twenty-five cities pay from $125 to $180, and six others range from $70 to $120, these being for all-night lighting. The greatest contrast is presented by Toledo, which pays $200 on one contract and only $40 on another, both being for 300 nights per year, taking advantage of the bright moonlight. The outside figure would appear to pay well, but the smaller one presents room for question, seeing that Bay City, Mich., operates its own plant at a cost of $42 per annum, and lights only till 10 o'clock, while it costs Madison, Ind., $55 per light per annum.

The Court's Decree.

By order of Judge O'Rourke the entire stock of boots and shoes of the late B. Rothschild, known as the Jacobs Shoe Store, 17 Calhoun street, must be closed out at once regardless of cost.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

THE Peru Sentinel is urging Congressman Bynum for governor.

THE strike of brewers loses interest since the Kentucky distilleries have doubled their capacity.

HARPER'S WEEKLY says that Judge Gresham is better than his party, and then prints a picture of ex-Senator Harrison to prove it.

THE Dubois county delegates to the state convention have been instructed for Myers for governor, Niblack for supreme junge, Munson for auditor, and Byrnes for treasurer.

THE News repudiated Mr. Henry Hilbrecht's candidacy for township trustee, because he was not a republican, but now it supports Mr. Hettler's candidates for water works trustees. Consistency is a jewel.

ANOTHER letter is said to have been received from Mr. Bynum, in which he says that he wants to be returned to congress, and that he is not a candidate for governor; further, that if his name is presented to the state convention it will be without his consent.

HON. JOSEPH E. MCDONALD says if he were president he would appoint for chief justice the very youngest man of the party fit for the place. Then he adds, with refershing candor: "He (Cleveland) had better not offer it to me if he does not want me to accept, however."

OF the gentlemen mentioned in connection with the chief justiceship, Gray, of Delaware, is not yet forty-eight; McDonald, of Indiana, sixty-eight; Bayard, of Delaware, fifty-nine; Carlisle, of Kentucky, fifty-two; Thurman, of Ohio, seventy-four; Morgan, of Alabama, sixty-four; Justice Field, of California, seventy-one; Justice Miller, of Iowa, seventy-one.

WHEN the democratic party first came into power the United States territory extended only to the Mississippi river and down to latitude 31°, leaving all Florida and the lower part of the gulf states to other nations; when it went out of power the territory stretched from ocean to ocean, from lattitude 49° to the gulf and from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande.

WHAT is the secret bond between twins which makes one suffer from the pain the other feels, however distant? That this in some degree is true there are numerous instances. Here is one from Tiffin, Ohio: Chas. Foncannon, age 25, got his arm in a planer at a churn factory and it was ground to pulp at the elbow. At the exact time this happened, 2:45 p. m., his twin sister, living over a mile away, suddenly cried out in great agony, saying that there was a fearful pain in her arm. She suffered so in a few minutes that a physician was sent for, and soon after he arrived three other physicians arrived, bringing her brother, whose arm they proceeded to amputate at once. When the sister had first been taken with the pain she had cried out, "Oh, Charley is hurt!" While the arm of her brother was being amputated, the sister, who was kept in another part of the house and did not know what was going on, suffered terribly and screamed with agony. It was necessary to give her an injection of morphine in the arm to quiet her. Since then, whenever the brother is unusually restless or suffers much, the sister suffers in a similar degree.

MRS. CATHERINE MCMAHON, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Arkins, at Greencastle, Ind., was born in Clare County, Ireland, Nov. 11, 1785, being one of several children born to Daniel Cooney and Mariah Flannegan, who died, the former at 62 years of age and the latter at 82. Two brothers, Martin and James, died in Dubuque, Ia., in 1873, the former lacking five days of rounding up a century. The latter was in his 98th year. Mrs. McMahon is remarkably well preserved. Her hair is black and abundant, round and compact. She has retained all her teeth but two, losing one when 100 years old, the other recently. She is dant as in youth, while her features are spry and gets about the house and yard with the aid of a light walking stick. She enjoys perfect second sight and sews and knits without glasses. She even makes her bed when permitted. She eats with impunity all manner of food, requiring no special dishes. Her memory is remarkably clear. She has enjoyed good health all her life, having taken but little medicine. Two of her sons, James, aged 64, and John, aged 61, live at Bedford, Ind. A daughter, Mrs. Catherine McCann, lives in Dubuque. She has numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, with three great-great-grandchildren, whose father, Michael Higgins, lives at Jackson, Miss., the seventh generation of her kin which she has lived to see.

ARCOLA ITEMS.

The wheat crop from present appearance will be a failure.

Farmers around about us are busy plowing for oats and corn.

"Surprises" are all the rage among both old and young. Last Friday evening a party of young folks started for a trip of about two miles out in the country to spend the evening and surprise the folks, but what was their surprise when, on reaching the place, to find their host had retired to his peaceful slumbers, and, not wishing to intrude, quietly dispersed.

This is leap yerr, and our belles are taking advantage of it, but it would be a wise plan to take warning of "the silly frog" and "look before you leap."

We are glad to say that our worthy trustee, J. G. Clapesattle, has been re-elected by a larger majority that has ever been known in the history of Lake township. Not forgetting to express our sympathy for our ex-justice of the peace. But the election is past and the defeated candidates, we hope, will soon recover from their illness.

A Letter to Dr. Metcalfe.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 14, 1888.
S. C. Metcalfe, M. D.

DEAR SIR—Your note was received. In reply permit to state that the gathering of garbage has, at my request, been placed under the exclusive control of the health officer. This plan was inaugurated several years ago, and since then has been a perfect success. I have two, and sometimes three wagons, and call at every house twice in each week; in hot months three times; at hotels, restaurants, etc., once a day. I pay drivers $1.50 a day, or including team and driver $2.75 per day. I have not had a half dozen complaints of neglect in six months. It, of course, is done at the public expense, as is the other gathering under the street commissioner, who has three teams at work now, and two during hot months. Should you desire it, I will send you a copy of the ordinance regulating the gathering of garbage. Enclosed I forward one in reference to keeping streets, gutters, etc., clean. Respectfully, T. HENRY DAVIS, M. D.

A BAD WOMAN.

She Quarrels With a Neighbor About a Line Fence and Sends a Bullet in His Brain.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—Mrs. Samuel Watts, a widow, murdered a neighbor named Storm, last night. The two had quarrelled often over a line fence. Storm went to the widow's house and renewed the quarrel. While his back was turned the widow seized a gun and shot him dead.

A Disgusting Prize Fight.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—A most unscientific, bloody and brutal prize fight took place yesterday, at St. Clair, Mo., between Arthur Flint, of St. Louis, and Hugh McManus, of Kansas City. The mill was for $1,000 a side and a purse of $1,000, skin gloves to finish under marquis of Queensbury rules. There were 200 present. Flint had decidely the best of it, knocking McManus down nearly every round until the thirteenth when he received a tremendous blow on the jaw. After that he weakened and in the seventeenth round was knocked completely out by another terrific smash on the jaw and one on the neck. Both were badly bruised.

Failures.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 17.—Curtiss and Dunton, proprietors of the oldest wholesale paper house in the city, this morning filed a mortgage to the amount of $9,540 in favor of L. G. Dunton to secure endorsements. Assets and liabilities unknown. John L. Curtiss, senior member of the firm, says it is a total wreck and that business will be wound up.

Lagrange Democrats.

LAGRANGE, Ind., April 17.—Every township was represented at the democratic convention held here Saturday, and unprecedented enthusiasm and harmony characterized the work done. Special delegations to the state and congressional conventions were selected. "Cleveland and Gray and tariff reduction," was the watchword.

Miss Coffin.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Judge Barrett in the supreme court yesterday decided against Miss Harriet Elizabeth Coffin, the eccentric young heiress, who was recently subject to proceedings de lunatico inquirendo before the sheriff. The jury found Miss Coffin to be sane. Judge Barrett says the testimony taken before the sheriff's jury all went to show that Miss Coffin was of unsound mind.

Judge Beckham.

NAPOLEON, Ohio, April 17.—Judge Wm. H. Beckham, late of Petoskey, Mich., was buried here yesterday. From 1856, when he moved here from Licking county, up to 1880, Judge Beckham was not only a prominent citizen of Napoleon, but of Northwestern Ohio. He went to Petoskey for his health and was prominent in Northern Michigan in improvements.

Lucky Baldwin's Horses Injured.

KANSAS CITY, April 17.—A special from Albuquerque, N. M., says: "It is reported here that a train containing thirty horses of Lucky Baldwin's stable has been wrecked near Peach Springs, Ari., and several of the most valuable horses badly injured.

Cleveland's College.

CLEVELAND, April 17.—Dr. James T. Edward, of Chamber's institute, Randolph, N. Y., has been chosen president of Mt. Union college, to succeed Rev. Dr. O. N. Hartshorn.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpaired are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hand and brain.

KIDNAPPED HIS OWN DAUGHTER.

Laura Cole Carried Home for Refusing to Give Her Father Her Earnings.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 17.—A sensation was caused on the north side of the public square, yesterday, by an irate father kidnapping his eighteen year old daughter, in the presence of an excited crowd, all being afraid to offer resistance. Laura Cole is a bright, handsome young woman, employed in the family of J. H. Ryors.

For some time her father has been demanding her wages each week. Finally the girl refused to give him the money any longer, and he threatened to make her return home. Yesterday afternoon Laura was walking on the square, when her father, passing in a wagon, saw her. He stopped at once and seized the surprised girl.

She cried for help, but, not knowing the cause of the trouble, the bystanders did not interfere. The girl caught hold of a sappling and resisted with all her power, but with threats and curses, and by main force, the poor creature was dragged into the wagon and driven away. The city marshal was sent out late in the evening to arrest the old man, who at the time of the kidnapping was evidently under the influence of liquor.

A MERE FARCE.

The Gas Company Announces a Reduction of Twenty Cents to Cash Patrons.

The Fort Wayne Gas company thaws out hard.

An agent of the company is about now announcing to consumers a reduction of twenty cents per 1,000 feet on illuminating gas after May 1, to all the people who pay cash on demand.

This is about all the company will do until people refuse to patronize it, and THE SENTINEL hopes that time is not far distant.

Counting on the President.

AUSTIN, Tex., April 17.—The management of the international and interstate drill and encampment, to be held from May 10 to 19, on the occasion of the dedication of the new capitol building here, expect to have President Cleveland and wife as their principal guests The entire Texas congressional delegation, headed by Senator Coke, will bear the invitation to the white house and, if accepted, will be the escort to Texas.

The Building Boom.

Martin Franke has been given a permit to build a one-story frame house on lot 2, Broadway, to cost $900.

Wm. Rahe to build a one-story frame house on lot 3, Broadway, to cost $450.

Josephine Noonan to build two sheds on lot 586, Hanna's addition, to cost $50.

W. H. Shorey to build an addition to house on lot 74, Williams' addition, to cost $300.

A New York letter says: "A bright, handsome boy of twenty-two or twenty-three you may occasionally see at fashionable restaurants in New York is Cyrus Field Edson, the telegraph magnate's favorite grandson. He has spent some time traveling in Europe and is now at Yale. You never see him smoke on his occasional trips to the city, for the simple reason that Mrs. Field, with whom he always stops when here, and who has a holy horror of the effect of cigarettes on young lungs, pays him, it is said, $500 a year to keep Sir Walter's weed away from his mouth. A good many young men would like to make a similar contract."

Humors run riot in the blood at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels every impurity and vitalizes and enriches the blood.

SENATORS VEST, of Missouri, Sawyer, of Wisconsin, and Jones, of Nevada, are considered the story-tellers of the Senate. They are all members of the Commerce Committee, and relieve the monotony of routine work by anecdotes, witticisms, and funny stories, rivaling each other in the effort to pose as the leading humorist of the trio.

You Carry

A whole medicine chest in your pocket, with one box of Ayer's Pills. As they operate directly on the stomach and bowels, they indirectly affect every other organ of the body. When the stomach is out of order, the head is affected, digestion fails, the blood becomes impoverished, and you fall an easy victim to any prevalent disease. Miss M. E. Boyle, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., puts the whole truth in a nutshell, when she says: "I use no other medicine than Ayer's Pills. They are all that any one needs, and just splendid to save money in doctors' bills."

Here is an instance of

who lost his medicine chest, but, having at hand a bottle of Ayer's Pills, found himself fully equipped.—J. Arrison, M. D., of San José, Cal., writes:

"Some three years ago, by the merest accident, I was forced, so to speak, to prescribe Ayer's Cathartic Pills for several sick men among a party of engineers in the Sierra Nevada mountains, my medicine chest having been lost in crossing a mountain torrent. I was surprised and delighted at the action of the Pills, so much so, indeed, that I was led to a further trial of them, as well as of your Cherry Pectoral and Sarsaparilla. I have nothing but praise to offer in their favor."

John W. Brown, M. D., of Oceana, W. Va., writes: "I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families."

T. E. Hastings, M. D., of Baltimore, Md., writes: "That Ayer's Pills do control and cure the complaints for which they are designed, is as conclusively proven to me as anything possibly can be. They are the best cathartic and aperient within the reach of the profession."

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

PARTY ACHIEVEMENTS.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS MADE AND LIBERALIZED A NATION.

From Atlantic to Pacific, St. Croix to Rio Grande — Josiah Quincy — Felix Grundy—Joel R. Poinsett—William L. Marcy—Robert J. Walker—Alaska.

When the Democratic party first came into power the United States territory extended only to the Mississippi and down to latitude 31 degs., leaving all Florida and the lower part of the Gulf states to other nations; when it went out of power our territory stretched from ocean to ocean, from latitude 49 degs. to the Gulf and from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande. These are hard facts, which no party malice can obscure; they cannot be overthrown by all the casuistry of a Sherman and all the "gall" of an Ingalls. They persistently charge—and by persistent reiteration make some of their callow followers believe it—that Democracy is and always has been "without brains," "incapable of governing the country, etc.;" but they take good care not to mention the facts that this much stigmatized party acquired all our territory worth having, made this the leading nation of the continent, secured the present liberal constitutions for the states in the Mississippi valley, completed the separation of church and state, established an independent treasury after paying two national debts, and, in short, made the country in size and capacities substantially what it is today.

While our opponents cannot get around these facts, it has lately become a fashion with them to deny the credit to Democrats and claim these acquisitions as nonpartisan. We purpose here to present just a few proofs on that point. Incidentally, however, we will say that the opposition of the Federalists and Whigs was perfectly honest and the most natural thing in the world; for, according to their theory of centralizing government, a large territory would in very truth be an immense evil. Indeed, two or three of the states are almost too large to be governed from one center; and if the Federalist doctrine had prevailed this nation could only have been governed as the Roman empire was. But on the true Democratic system a continent can be governed as efficiently as a county; for that system is that the nation should do nothing which can safely be left to the state, the state nothing that can be trusted to the county and the county nothing that the local authorities can do; while neither nation, state nor county, should interfere with personal liberty further than is absolutely necessary, leaving each man to be as far as possible his own moral agent. And we must admit that the large extent of our country has greatly aided to enforce the Democratic principle of local self government—so much so that even the Republican justices of the supreme court are getting back to it, despite all the centralization of the war period.

When Thomas Jefferson acquired Louisiana the Federalists fell afoul of him with abuse, the reading of which now makes us think of Ingalls as a gentleman. Josiah Quincy announced that the bonds of the Union were dissolved, and that Massachusetts, of which he was a representative, ought to secede. The believers in centralization were wise enough to see that such an addition of territory was hostile to their schemes, that the new states in the south and west would naturally be ardent for local self government. Young voters are apt to think that the habit of denouncing Democrats as "ignorant," "unpatriotic," "Jacobins, etc.," has sprung up since the war; they may be surprised to learn that it was much worse long before, that Jefferson particularly was pictured as a demagogue, a libertine and an atheist, and that thousands of "old women of both sexes" actually believed that they would have their Bibles taken from them and burned if he were elected president. Louisiana was admitted into the Union in 1811, against the protest of one-third of the members of the house of representatives, almost every one of them from the northeastern states. In 1819, by a treaty with Spain, we acquired the whole of Florida and got an unquestioned title to the Gulf of the states between it and the Mississippi. Out of this and the expeditions of Gen. Jackson, which preceded it, grew personal and party hatreds, which endured thirty years. Thereafter the Democrats voted almost solidly for the new states of the west, while the opposing party was generally divided.

In this period the Democratic party contained some of the grandest men in history. There, for instance, was Felix Grundy, whose name ought to be better known to this generation—a friend of humanity whose career young Democrats should study. He was born in Berkeley county, Va., Sept. 11, 1777, and died in Nashville, Dec. 19, 1840. Nearly all his active life was spent in Tennessee, and as a representative and senator from that state; and he takes high rank among those noble men who established the liberal constitutions of these western states. Any one who will compare the constitution of Indiana, for instance, with that of any of the New England or Atlantic states of the time of its adoption, will be struck with the contrast—especially as to the property rights of women, the exemption of witnesses from annoyance concerning their religion, and the complete separation of church and state; but it is a fact not generally known that traces of the old British practice of making religious distinctions between citizens lingered in some of the Federalist states to a very recent period, and that some very hot political battles were waged thereon. The honor of completing the divorce of church and state and enforcing it in the constitutions of the states admitted before the war belongs to the Democracy.

Another Democrat of note during the time the Democrats were rounding out the borders of the nation, was the refined and scholarly Joel R. Poinsett, of South Carolina. He learned medicine and the natural sciences at the famed university of Edinburgh and military engineering at Woolwich. However, his life in Great Britain only made him love his country more, and he came home to devote his life to her service. In 1809 he went to South America for President Madison to advise and assist the friends of liberty there; in 1822 he went to Mexico on a similar errand, and his able reports to Presidents Monroe and Adams give the best picture of the peculiar condition of Mexican affairs in the disturbed period following her revolution. When those reports were read and digested, all far seeing men knew that the time was near at hand when the United States must extend to the Rio Grande and Pacific. He returned to South Carolina to oppose the nullification movement, was secretary of war under President Van Buren, and furnished the statesmen of that day with many of the points which finally secured us Texas and California.

Cotemporary with the foregoing, but remaining longer in active life, were the statesmen William L. Marcy and the eminent financier, Robert J. Walker, secretary of war and secretary of the treasury in the stormy administration of James K. Polk. The establishment of the independent treasury was the greatest achievement of Van Buren's administration; but the bringing of that treasury to its highest state of efficiency and establishing the fairest system of revenue this country ever had, was the work of Robert J. Walker. The Whigs indulged in some ridicule of Marcy because he did not insist upon extending our northwestern boundary up to 50 or 40 degs.; but the solid fact remains that when he came into office we had not an undisputed title to Oregon, and when he went out we had. South of Oregon and west of Texas that administration added to the country an area twelve times the size of Ohio, a region which has given to the national treasure $1,600,000,000 in gold and silver.

In conclusion, perhaps, the other side should be heard. Well, the Republicans have bought—Alaska! Once or twice a year till 1885 they issued an official document to prove that the country was worth having; but the people are still skeptical. Mr. Wind-galls (or whatever his Kansas name is), would probably say that the common people are "without brains" to appreciate it.

That Tired Feeling

Afflicts nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

DR. J. BUTTNER, of Kotzchen-Breda, has invented a contrivance which enables people to indulge in the healthy pastime of mountain climbing without leaving their rooms. This apparatus is more particularly adapted for the use of persons suffering from a defective circulation, fatty degeneration, obesity, etc. It consists of a couple of steps placed side by side and working in such a way that one rises while the other is being pressed down by the foot. Under each step is a bellows which offers a resisting power to the down tread. The labor of climbing is regulated by means of a lever brake. The steps are six inches high, and the less or greater steepness of the climb can be imitated by treading the step halfway down, or to its full depth; also by varying the amount of "lugging" carried by the operator. A self-acting pedometer registers the number of paces.

A Luxury and Necessity

For rich and poor who wish to enjoy good health, and who do not wish to resort to bitter nauseous liver medicines and cathartics, is the concentrated California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. 50c. and $1 bottles for sale by Thieme & Gross.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

I suffered from a very severe cold in my head for months and used everything recommended, but could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known. Feeling grateful for what it has done for me I send this testimonial.—Samuel J. Harris, wholesale grocer, 119 Front street, New York.

SOME DOCTORS

honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Athlophoros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 3, 1887.
In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. WILSON.

Dubuque, Iowa, Jan. 3, 1888.
Athlophoros has completely cured me of nervous headache, and I feel thankful for all the good it has done me.

HERE is a composition on the whale written by a Japanese boy in a government school in Japan, which, besides being a curiosity, is very suggestive of the difficulties foreigners meet with in learning the English language: "The Whale.—The whale live in the sea and ocean of all the country. He is a large and strong in among of kinds of all the fish, and its length reach to ninety foot from seventy foots, and its color almost is a dark, and he has a large head. When swim in the up water he is so large as island. When struck the water on angry he is so voice as ring great deal thunder. If he danced make the storm without winds, and also when blow the water almost lay down the fog on the weather. His the form is proper to live, for his frontlegs make higher and his after legs is no, and the tail is a Hire that open on the up waters, and the mouth have no leaves, but have leaves that is as hard narrow beard as with horns. His bodys though is a fish, he is not a fish, but is a creature. His leaves is names whales-leaves. The men make the everything with it. Every years to seven or eight months from four or five months, the whalemen catch on the sea or ocean. He many live on the sea of North-sea-way or five island, of Hirado on Higen-Country in Japan. Written by T. Hirakawa. P. S.—The tell of the whale is more—but I do not know fully to tell."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action, thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

LOCAL NEWS.

Auburn has concluded to buy an 800-pound fire bell.

Mr. Ph. Hyman and son went to St. Louis last night.

Mr. George Meyers, of Findlay, Ohio, is a guest of Mr. H. C. Graffe.

A number of Scottish Rite Masons went to Indianapolis to-day.

Our Own club give a ball at Arion hall on the evening of May 11th.

The Cathedral choir is to be enlarged and reinforced by a strong chorus.

D. C. Gardner, of the News, with his family, are visiting friends and relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Rosser McClure, of Lafayette, was the guest of her husband in this city last Sunday.

The handsome artists in George Thain's barber shop came out with new suits yesterday.

The clover crop is reported about as nearly annihilated throughout the country as the wheat crop.

The Trades and Labor council meets to-night. The meeting will not be postponed, as was announced.

Captain Hettler did not dictate the Union Labor convention Saturday night and his pet scheme was not endorsed.

Mr. J. H. Sloan, the clerk of the Pittsburg machine shops, leaves for Englewood to-night to visit his family.

Humbert & Brommer's saloon, at Huntington, was burglarized the other night and $75 was taken from the safe, which was broken.

The special conveying the Wabash officials through this place last Saturday made an average of sixty-two miles an hour over the first section east of town.

The recent vote on the proposition to purchase the toll roads has all been certified to the county auditor save from four townships. The vote now stands; For free roads, 1,665; against this purchase, 6,698.

The wedding of Mr. Stephen Bond, the commission merchant, to Miss Grace Gorham, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Supt. C. D. Gorham, is announced to occur next week at Cleveland.

The McGibeny family is truly a wonderful group, and the entertainment given last night at the Central Y. M. C. A. was very satisfactory and was fully entitled to the enthusiastic audience which greeted them. They repeat their concert to-night.

Mr. Louis Fox, Mr. F. D. Casanave and Mr. Christ Wenninghoff will be petitioned to allow the use of their names as democratic candidates for water works trustees on a platform demanding "unconditional and immediate reduction of the water rents."

W. C. Coup's horse show was sued at Toledo by County Auditor Cooney Saturday night for showing in the city without a license. The amount sued for was $300. The case was set for the 21st of this month, and the show allowed to proceed on its travels. Such shows as Coup's are subject to a license of $60 per day, the same as a circus license.

The richest musical treat that Fort Wayne has enjoyed for years was given to a fair audience at Y. M. C. A. hall, last night. It was beyond the pale of criticism. Every member of the family is an artist, while little Leo and Master Jamie are wonders. This is the last evening of their stay. The program is excellent. Come early and secure seats.

Daniel Bandmann, who plays "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" at the Temple Thursday, laid off his company one night last week to pay a visit to Robert Louis Stevenson at Schroon Lake. Mr. Stevenson is reported to have expressed himself as pleased with the version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," given by Mr. Randmann, and assured him of his moral right to the play. He also encouraged him in the idea of going to London, and Mr. Bandmann agreed, in the event of such a trip, to pay royalties on the play, both for this country and abroad.

The society for the prevention of cruelty to animals should watch some of the teamsters who are engaged in making excavations for new buildings. Yesterday one of them beat a team of small mules most unmercifully because they were unable to haul a load of dirt up a hill out of an excavation, when the load could not have been moved had twice the force been pulling at the traces. He continued to beat them, however, and when forced to stop his cruelty by passers by, broke out with a stream of blasphemy that was horrible. Some of these teamsters should be taught a severe lesson. There is too much of this cruelty to the dumb animals going on all over the city and such cases should call for a prompt punishment of the heartless perpetrators.

The Richmond Palladium says: "The Fort Wayne Odd Fellows have organized a degree staff, said to be composed of first-class material, and have just purchased a paraphernalia at a cost of $1,200, which ought to enable them to present the initiation and degrees very attractively, and they will be able to do so, when they have acquired sufficient practice. A committee of brethren of Harmony lodge, Fort Wayne, visited Whitewater lodge, in this city, last night, and saw the first degree conferred upon Charley Teal. They were delighted with the work, particularly with the conception given some parts by the Whitewater staff, and obtained "pointers" that will be valuable to them. At their request, the initiatory degrees was exemplified, and that contained many features that were entirely new to them. The members of Whitewater lodge were pleased with the visit of their Fort Wayne brethren, and did all they could to make it pleasant and profitable."

Work at McCulloch park is progressing.

Mrs Thomas Reher, of Taylor street, is very ill.

Toledo is being stirred up with a Salvation Army.

Mrs. Birdie Wing has removed to 28 Chicago street.

The boys at the police station are all uniformed now.

Mr. Will McKinnie, proprietor of the Wayne hotel, is issuing special meal tickets to business men, and they are going to leap into favor at once.

Judge Chapin yesterday decreed John M. Miller a judgment for $620 against W. J. Kerr. The superior court then adjourned until Friday morning.

The Indianapolis News gives it out that Hon. C. A. Munson will run an excursion train from Fort Wayne to Indianapolis on the occasion of the state convention.

Henry Meyers, whose blacksmith shop is at the corner of Calhoun and Superior streets, was fined $5 and costs by Mayor Muhler last night for cruelty to a horse.

Perry A. Randall has sold to William Ditman lot 80, Bass and Hanna's addition, for $800; Wilhelmina Droegemeyer to Joseph B. Saunders lot 20, Spencer's addition, for $2,650.

In the concluding "shoot" at the White range yesterday W. W. Watson defeated Frank Brown by a score of 33 to 28, out of a possible 50. The men killed live pigeons, and ought to be warned that this sort of cruelty will not be tolerated again.

The Lutheran Benefit association held its first regular meeting Sunday night. This association is meeting with very encouraging success, having already a membership of over 100, and before three months it will undoubtedly show a membership of over 500.

This morning Albert S. Darroh, the bright and promising son of Hon. Austin Darroh, of Aboite township, died at the St. Joe hospital, from pneumonia. The young man was fifteen years of age and his death is a very sad one. The funeral occurs to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Joe hospital. The interment will be at Lindenwood.

Don't forget the Military Kirmiss.

William Franz was fined for assaulting Officer Fuschshuber.

Dr. and Mrs. Peter Robison, of Bluffton, are in the city to-day.

Councilman Williams and his family went to Cincinnati this morning.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL

The Railroads are Called on for Their Budget of News—The Gossip of the Day.

The Pittsburg pay car came in at noon.

The Olds works are building a new boiler house.

The Bass works shipped two new stationary boilers to-day.

The train records for the last week show that freight business is improving.

The Pittsburg works are not employing any new men at present, so as to increase their forces.

The Pittsburg pay car distributed its wealth among the employes of the Pennsylvania company to-day.

The Bass works are constantly receiving large shipments of pig iron from their southern furnaces.

Victor Depray has taken a position in the Pittsburg machine shops, in place of M. Koehl, who has resigned.

Michael Kopp, inspector of patterns in the Bass works, has recovered from his recent sickness and returned to work.

Lewis Seipe, a machinist in the Bass works, has gone out into the country to superintend the erection of an engine for a saw mill.

Wm. Wurtle, a blacksmith, and C. Cook, a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, will leave to-morrow for the front on a hunting expedition.

Rear Admiral John Worden, of the United States navy, was at the Pittsburg depot last night en route to Washington from a visit with his family at Grand Rapids.

Frank M. Caldwell, former district passenger agent of the Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday returning to Indianapolis from a Sunday visit with his family at Kalamazoo.

The building and improvements that have already commenced in different parts of the city furnishes employment to many men and idle laborers and mechanics are becoming fewer every week.

A son of Wm. Robinson, of the Bass foundry, disappeared from home last Saturday, his absence creating considerable alarm. Yesterday he returned and says he is satisfied to remain at home hereafter.

Mr. J. W. Challenger, whose death occurred yesterday, had many friends among the old employes of the Pittsburg works, where he was employed several years ago. Many of them will attend his funeral.

William Lindermeyer, a moulder in the Bass works, was injured yesterday while at work. The crane flew up and hit him, cutting a severe gash. The wound was sewed up by a physician and he went to work again this morning.

Mr. Thompson, a Nickel Plate engineer, found black crape on his room door Saturday. The "boys" took this means of celebrating his first trip out for two weeks. It is rumored that Ben is struck on a handsome girl and the "boys" thus account for his lay off.

By the recent election H. S. Ives drops from sight in the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan road, and it is believed that in the same manner he will pass out of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton. It is well understood that he will have no more to say as regards the affairs of the Vandalia.

This city has one of the most flourishing railroad branches of the Young Men's Christian Association to be found in this country. It has an excellent library and numerous other attractions for railroad men. One feature is its well provided bath rooms. During the month of March 516 railroad men availed themselves of the bathing accomodations.

The impression prevails that should the Missouri Pacific people let go of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road it will fall into the hands of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. General Manager Clark, in speaking of the future of that road, and a horizontal reduction of two per cent. of the bonded indebtedness would mean an annual saving to its management of nearly $1,000,000, and that some such measure would needs be adopted, whether the Missouri Pacific or its directors operate the road. He says it would be a valuable road for any one of a half dozen roads.

The dirty and lazy tramp is becoming a familiar figure around the railroads. They are somebody's sons, and many of them could tell a history that would prove a warning to the boys that are now growing up into manhood. Placed in a line and questioned as to what led them to their present life, nine out of every ten would trace their wayward career back to the influence of rum. The majority of them are utterly and wholly worthless and would refuse to remain in any kind of permanent employment, even if they could obtain it. They are confirmed tramps, and will remain so until death ends their tramping life.

James Trythall, the well known hammer smith in the Pittsburg shops, is an active and earnest religious worker and is becoming quite prominent as an exhorter in the church. He labors at his hammer every day in the week, from early morn until eventide, and yet finds time to prepare almost every week one or two sermons which he delivers at the Mission church or other places on the Sabbath. He is a zealous Christian worker and is doing much to advance the cause of religion by his efforts. Mr. Trythall is an interesting and eloquent speaker. He is a native of England, having come to this country several years ago and has a host of warm friends who wish him "God speed" in his good work.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The House Goes Into a Committee of the Whole to Consider the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The house has just went into a committee of the whole (Springer, of Illinois, in the chair) for the consideration of the tariff bill. No opposition was made to Mr. Mills' motion to this effect.

THE WAITE FUND.

The fund that has been started for the widow of the late Chief Justice Waite has already reached generous proportions, $10,000 having been subscribed without solicitation. If the amount reaches $100,000 it will be invested as a permanent fund, the interest to go to Mrs. Waite. If it should not reach that figure the subscriptions will be collected and given to her in cash.

THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

The presence in Washington of Judge William S. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, has given rise to rumor that he has been called here by the president to receive a tender of the chief justiceship. Judge Groesbeck's appointment is one which would give general satisfaction. He is a lawyer of the highest excellence; of national reputation; was prominent as one of President Johnson's counsel in the impeachment trial, and is at the age of sixty as vigorous and young looking as he was in that memorable trial twenty years ago.

MR. MILLS CLOSES.

Mr. Mills closed his speech on the tariff bill amid loud applause at 2:50 and Mr. Kelly, of Pennsylvania, took the floor to reply.

MAKING IT HOT FOR GAMBLERS.

Numerous Arrests Growing Out of One Family's Misfortune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 17.—The Citizens' League of this city is waging a vigorous war on the gamblers who have been running open houses, without interference on the part of the police, since Mayor Charles R. Hay was elected a year ago. Not long ago a butcher lost everything he had in one of the rooms, and left his wife, with four little children, in very destitute circumstances.

She appealed to the mayor and chief of police, but was dismissed with the information that they were not lawyers and couldn't get her money for her and that she had better go home. About this time the Citizens' league got wind of the story and it at once began to push the case, with a success that, so far has been truly marvelous.

They have succeed in placing under arrest six of the leading gambling house keepers of the city and subpoenaed thirty citizens as witnesses, among whom are said to be prominent city officials and business men. Some of the witnesses are going the rounds of the local papers trying to have their names suppressed.

The affair has caused a good deal of talk already, and if reports are anywhere near true it will create a great sensation when the cases are called, and more than one unsuspecting wife will have her eyes opened to the fact that the wicked "tiger" and not legitimate business has been detaining her husband out so late at night.

AN ENGINE OF DEATH.

The Dynamite Cruiser Gun Boat to be Launched for the United States Navy.

PHILADELPHIA, April 17.—The Wm. Cramp & Sons' Ship and Engine Building company have nearly completed a dynamite cruiser gun boat, called Yorktown, designed for the United States navy. It will be launched Saturday, April 28, in the presence of Secretary Whitney.

It carries four pneumatic guns for hurling dynamite projectiles, with a range of at least a mile. The training of the guns is accomplished by steering the vessel, and the loading is all done by steam. The guns are fifteen-inch calibre and the shells, which can be fired with great accuracy twice a minute, will contain 800 pounds of explosive gelatine, equivalent to 852 pounds of dynamite.

It is claimed if this gun is properly handled it will be the most destructive engine of war yet invented, for the heaviest armored ships in the world will go to pieces from the explosion of a shell much smaller than those thrown by the guns on Yorktown.

The Wealth of the Jews.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Isaac Markens, who is connected with the New York Press, will issue to-morrow his history of "The Hebrews in America." The work shows that there are 400,000 Jews in this country, 125,000 of whom are in New York. They control $150,000,000 worth of real estate property in this city and represent 5,000,000 in the cotton exchange. Their annual transactions in leading lines of trade in New York foot up $248,000,000 annually.

A Gresham Delegation.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., April 17.—At a mass meeting of republicans of Lafayette, yesterday, the following gentlemen were chosen delegates to the convention to nominate four delegates from the state at large to attend the national convention: George W. Friedley, Mordecai Peck, Austin L. Kumbler and S. F. Masten. The entire delegation is for Gresham.

THE EMPEROR!

Germany's Ruler is Still in a Feverish Condition and is Visited by the Crown Prince.

BERLIN, April 17.—The emperor passed a somewhat quieter night. The crown prince and Prince Henry remained at the castle all night. There was no change at 11:50 a. m., in the feverish condition of the emperor. His majesty was visited for a short time early this morning by the crown prince.

2:15 P. M.—Emperor Frederick now feels better. He rose shortly after 11, and afterwards appeared at the window of his bedroom. The fever is abating and his appetite has improved. His respiration is also improved. There is a more hopeful feeling beginning to prevail. The consultation of the physicians this morning is reported to have resulted in an agreement that there is no inflammation of the bowels and bronchitis is abating.

At 4 p. m. the physicians issued the following bulletin: "Symptoms of bronchitis have considerably diminished since yesterday and fever has abated. The emperor passed a better night and his general condition is satisfactory.

GENERAL BOULANGER.

PARIS, April 17.—Small crowds paraded in portions of Paris last night, cheering for General Boulanger. The police dispersed them without trouble. The Journal des Debats says: The election of General Boulanger in the Department of the Nord shows the country is wearied out and profoundly disgusted with the conduct and policy of the government. The majority of the electors it says can no longer endure the government which does not govern, but leaves the country a prey to the vacillations and dissensions of politicians and the tyranny of electoral committees.

VIENNA, April 17.—The military committee of the reichsrath has adopted without modification a bill to authorize the summoning of reserves and supplemental reserves in time of peace under certain circumstances. The minister of national defense, in addressing the committee, declared the bill was only intended to apply under exceptional circumstances, justifying such measure.

A CELEBRATED CASE.

The Sudden Death of Mrs. Caswell Recalls a Celebrated Case.

MOUNTPELIER, Ill., April 17.—The sudden death of Mrs. A. M. Caswell, at Brooklyn, New York, from a stroke of paralysis, ends one of the most celebrated cases of litigation on record. Her husband, Daniel H. Caswell, deserted her in 1863, and in 1860 made application for a divorce in the Piatt county circuit court, which was granted.

In January, 1869, Caswell married Miss Louisa C. Broodwell, of Ohio, by whom there has been born six children. In 1886, at the February term, Mrs. A. M. Caswell entered suit in the Piatt county circuit court to have the divorce impeached and set aside after the decree had been granted seventeen years. She was successful and the divorce was revoked by the court.

Caswell carried the case up to the appellate and supreme courts of Illinois, both of which sustained the Piatt county court, making Mr. Caswell's marriage with Miss Broodwell null and void and illegitimate. Mr. Caswell lives at Nashville, Tenn., where his first wife, Mrs. A. M. Caswell, had instituted suit in the courts for a divorce and alimony, and the death of Mrs. Caswell will end this suit, but he will have to marry his present companion to make her his legal wife.

No Labor Ticket in New York.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Peter R. Gatens, the secretary of the county general committee of the United Labor party, denounces the attempt to make the party a tender to the republican machine. He says the labor men will not help to defeat a democratic president unless the party managers feel sure that a labor man has reasonably sure chances of winning. The labor men will not place a ticket in the field.

Railroad Directors Elected.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 17.—The following have been elected members of the board of directors of the Ohio Southern railroad: Alfred Sully, Austin Corbin, J. R. Maxwell, Henry Graves, Dumont Clark, R. K. Dow, of New York, Wm. N. Whitely, Amos Whitely and H. L. Chapman, of Springfield, H. S. Hillard, of Wellston, Isaac Brown, of Jackson, and H. H. Weakley, of New Carlisle.

Electricity in a Well.

LEBANON, Mo., April 17.—The piping of an artesian well here is so heavily charged with electricity that small bits of steel adhere to it wherever they touch it. The well is 1,200 feet deep, the water rising in it nearly 1,000 feet, and the pipe extends down some 800 feet.

Similarity in Suicides.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 17.—Delia Keenan, aged sixteen years, and Amer Hurley, both living on James street, within two blocks of each other, took carbolic acid and died in a few hours. The cause of Hurley's case was matrimonial troubles, while the motive of the girl was not brought to light.

The Elections.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.—All places of business are closed as on Sunday. The election is progressing quietly.

"NOT SO WELL,"

Is the Report the Doctor Brings From the Sick Room of Mr. Conkling This Morning.

NEW YORK, April 17.—At 9:15 Dr. Barker called on Mr. Conkling and remained with him for three-quarters of an hour. When he came out the doctor said: "Mr. Conkling is not so well this morning. Both bronchitis and subsalts have disappeared. He is not so clear-minded as he was last night. He has taken forty ounces of nourishment, principally milk. His pulse is 98, temperature 100. I found it absolutely necessary to give him active medicine."

At 11:20 this morning the head porter Otoole who has been much in the sick-room, expressed the opinion that from the talk current in the room Mr. Conkling will not live throughout to-night. He thinks, however, there is no danger during the day. The patient is growing steadily weaker and at present is lying in a stupor.

At 12:45 o'clock, Dr. Watson, of Utica, Conkling's old family physician, upon leaving the sick room, declined to express any opinion, as Dr. Barker has charge of the case. "But," he added, "I will say that Mr. Conkling is certainly no better to-day."

THE LATEST.

NEW YORK, April 17—4 p. m.—Dr. Barker called at Mr. Conkling's and remained until 3:40. Upon coming out he said: "Mr. Conkling since 12:20 has developed edema of the lungs, which is settling the blood in the base of his lungs, and he will probably die before morning."

Stolen Jewelry From Paris.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Surveyor of the Port Campbell has issued orders to the custom officers to be extra vigilant in examining the baggage of passengers on incoming steamers. Recently a large quantity of jewelry was stolen from Messrs. Rollin & Feaudient, of Paris, and is supposed to be on its way to this country and may arrive at this port.

The intrinsic value of the jewelry amounts to $60,000 and is mostly in diamonds. If it arrives here it will be detained.

In Honor of Grant.

NEW YORK, April 17.—General Sherman is confident that the banquet at Delmonico's, that he is getting up to celebrate General Grant's birthday, on April 27 will be a success. Chauncey M. Depew will be the principal speaker, and all the prominent Confederate generals living, Johnston, Longstreet, Mahone, Lee, Gordon, Buckner, and Mosby, will be present and make addresses. The price of tickets has been placed at $20.

Solid for Matson.

VALPARAISO, April 17.—The following are the delegates to the democratic state convention: D. F. Skinner, H. P. Brown, S. P. Corboy, G. C. Morgan, P. A. Hallburg, John Wilson, L. W. Pierce and R. M. Boone. The delegation is solid for Matson for governor.

Sherman Men.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—The First Ohio district republican convention elected Hon. Amer Smith and Frank A. Tucker delegates to the Chicago convention; Second district, Charles Howard Ferris and Dr. T. W. Graydon. All are understood to be in favor of the nomination of John Sherman.

Over a Calf.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—During a dispute at Pearl Station, near Whitehall, Ill., between Robert McEvers and Wm. Howard Garrison, cousins, over a calf owned by McEvers, the latter was stabbed five times by Howard Garrison and instantly killed.

Railroad Man Dead.

MALDEN, Mass., April 17.—William Merritt, for a number of years superintendent on the Boston and Maine railroad, died at his home, in East Somerville, aged about eighty years. The deceased was well known in railroad circles.

Died from His Wounds.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Daniel Brasnet, the Chicago and Alton watchman, who was shot April 3, by tramps who were attempting to steal a ride, died at the county hospital this morning.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Indiana: Threatening weather, light rains, followed by colder, fair weather.

Death of a Banker.

LONDON, April 17.—Mr. John Baring, the banker, is dead.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Wheat, easier, at 81¼c. Corn, firmer at 55¼c. Oats, firmer; May 33¼c. Rye, 61¼c. May. Prime timothy, $2.66. Flaxseed, $1.45. Whisky, $1.15. Pork, steady, at $14.15. Lard, easier, at $7.70. Spare ribs $7.20.

CHICAGO, April 17.—Hogs, receipts, 27,000; fairly active, but prices weak and 15c to 20c lower; heavy packing, and shipping, $5.40@5.65. Cattle, receipts, 7,000; steady to strong; beeves, $3.65@5.10. Sheep, receipts, 5,000; active, higher; choice, westerns and natives, $6@6.50; lambs, $5.@6.75.

The best shoes in the market can now be obtained at the administrator's sale of the Jacobs Shoe Store, 17 Calhoun street, at less than manufacturers' cost.

THE BREWERS.

They Go On a Strike in a Cincinnati Brewery and a General Lockout is Feared.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—The conditions are favorable for a general lookout here of the brewers, Moerlein having refused to reinstate a man at the request of his fellow-workmen. They struck and their action was ratified last night by the Brewers' union, which declared an immediate boycott on Moerlein's beer.

The boss brewers, in anticipation of this, some days ago resolved to stand together in case any one was boycotted.

In reply to this resolution one of Moerlein's customers, who this morning stopped taking Moerlein's beer and tried to buy elsewhere, was refused. Both sides are confident of a conquest.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The second day of the strike of the brewers opened with both employers and employes as determined as ever. Secretary Seiffert, of the Brewers' association, said the brewers are getting all the men they wanted and the strike will be a short lived one.

The journeymen's contract has been signed by Schmidt and Schwannenflügel, of New York, the brewers and members of the association. This is the first break in the employers' ranks.

A Levee Gives Away.

GREENVILLE, Miss., April 17.—News has been received from Lecto, Miss., to the effect that the levee, one mile south of Grand Lake, Ark., gave away yesterday and that the water is now running with terrific force through the gap, which is more than 200 feet wide. It is very rapidly widening.

THE annual return to Parliament of the British Inland Revenue office, covering the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1887, has just been made, and gives the following figures concerning the manufacture of malt liquors: The total number of persons licensed to brew malt liquors in the United Kingdom was 13,755, against 14,166 for 1886, a decrease of 411. Of this number 11,716 brewed less than 1,000 barrels, 1,583 brewed over 1,000 and under 10,000, and 271 brewed over 10,000 and less than 20,000, leaving 505 as brewing more than 20,000 barrels. Three concerns brewed over 200,000 barrels, 3 over 250,000, 1 over 300,000, 2 over 350,000, 1 over 400,000, 1 over 450,000, 1 over 500,000, 2 between 600,000 and 1,000,000, and 1—Guinness & Co., of Dublin—over 1,000,000 barrels, the total brew of this colossal concern being given as 1,448,368 barrels, an increase of about 90,000 barrels on last year's brewing. The revenue obtained from the entire trade was in round figures $42,903,058. The quantity of materials used was 52,319,027 bushels of malt and corn, and 1,495,939 hundred-weight of sugar, including its equivalent of sirups. The total exports of malt liquor from Great Britain and Ireland for the year aggregated 424,386 barrels, valued at $7,875,464, an increase of 1,997 barrels over the previous year's figures.

The divorce case of Magdaline Keller vs. Caspar Keller was dismissed.

R. Minta Houghston was granted a divorce from John Houghston.

The divorce case of John G. Hettler vs. Harriet Hettler is on trial.

Anna Tyler vs. Fred Tyler. Divorce granted plaintiff.

FATHER TAAFE, who has been a Catholic priest at Flemingsburg, Ky., two years, has apparently become temporarily deranged by smoking cigarettes, says a Louisville paper. He recently confessed a misdemeanor and paid a fine to escape scandal, as he said. Inquiry showed he had committed no misdemeanor. Father Hickey, of Maysley, hearing this, called on Taafe, who denied having paid any fine. Even when confronted with the evidence, he remembered nothing of it. Taafe had been smoking cigarettes very freely, sometimes a hundred a day, and it is feared it will be necessary to take him to an infirmary.

THE cost of electric lighting in the different cities of the United States which use it varies widely. The cost per light per year is highest in Savannah and Nashville, being $255. Boston and Washington pay $237.25; Montgomery, Ala., and Springfield, Mass., $219; Cambridge, Philadelphia, Worcester, Mass., and Kansas City, $200, and Detroit 188.70. Twenty-five cities pay from $125 to $180, and six others range from $70 to $120, these being for all-night lighting. The greatest contrast is presented by Toledo, which pays $200 on one contract and only $40 on another, both being for 300 nights per year, taking advantage of the bright moonlight. The outside figure would appear to pay well, but the smaller one presents room for question, seeing that Bay City, Mich., operates its own plant at a cost of $42 per annum, and lights only till 10 o'clock, while it costs Madison, Ind., $55 per light per annum.

Daily Sentinel

SUBSCRIPTION, per week............ 10c

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1888.

THE Peru Sentinel is urging Congressman Bynum for governor.

THE strike of brewers loses interest since the Kentucky distilleries have doubled their capacity.

HARPER'S WEEKLY says that Judge Gresham is better than his party, and then prints a picture of ex-Senator Harrison to prove it.

THE Dubois county delegates to the state convention have been instructed for Myers for governor, Niblack for supreme junge, Munson for auditor, and Byrnes for treasurer.

THE News repudiated Mr. Henry Hilbrecht's candidacy for township trustee, because he was not a republican, but now it supports Mr. Hettler's candidates for water works trustees. Consistency is a jewel.

ANOTHER letter is said to have been received from Mr. Bynum, in which he says that he wants to be returned to congress, and that he is not a candidate for governor; further, that if his name is presented to the state convention it will be without his consent.

HON. JOSEPH E. MCDONALD says if he were president he would appoint for chief justice the very youngest man of the party fit for the place. Then he adds, with refershing candor: "He (Cleveland) had better not offer it to me if he does not want me to accept, however."

OF the gentlemen mentioned in connection with the chief justiceship, Gray, of Delaware, is not yet forty-eight; McDonald, of Indiana, sixty-eight; Bayard, of Delaware, fifty-nine; Carlisle, of Kentucky, fifty-two; Thurman, of Ohio, seventy-four; Morgan, of Alabama, sixty-four; Justice Field, of California, seventy-one; Justice Miller, of Iowa, seventy-one.

WHEN the democratic party first came into power the United States territory extended only to the Mississippi river and down to latitude 31°, leaving all Florida and the lower part of the gulf states to other nations; when it went out of power the territory stretched from ocean to ocean, from latitude 49° to the gulf and from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande.

WHAT is the secret bond between twins which makes one suffer from the pain the other feels, however distant? That this in some degree is true there are numerous instances. Here is one from Tiffin, Ohio: Chas. Fonsannon, age 25, got his arm in a planer at a churn factory and it was ground to pulp at the elbow. At the exact time this happened, 2:45 p. m., his twin sister, living over a mile away, suddenly cried out in great agony, saying that there was a fearful pain in her arm. She suffered so in a few minutes that a physician was sent for, and soon after he arrived three other physicians arrived, bringing her brother, whose arm they proceeded to amputate at once. When the sister had first been taken with the pain she had cried out, "Oh, Charley is hurt!" While the arm of her brother was being amputated, the sister, who was kept in another part of the house and did not know what was going on, suffered terribly and screamed with agony. It was necessary to give her an injection of morphine in the arm to quiet her. Since then, whenever the brother is unusually restless or suffers much, the sister suffers in a similar degree.

MRS. CATHERINE MCMAHON, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Arkins, at Greencastle, Ind., was born in Clare County, Ireland, Nov. 11, 1785, being one of several children born to Daniel Cooney and Mariah Flannegan, who died, the former at 62 years of age and the latter at 82. Two brothers, Martin and James, died in Dubuque, Ia., in 1873, the former lacking five days of rounding up a century. The latter was in his 98th year. Mrs. McMahon is remarkably well preserved. Her hair is black and abundant as in youth, while her features are round and compact. She has retained all her teeth but two, losing one when 100 years old, the other recently. She is spry and gets about the house and yard with the aid of a light walking stick. She enjoys perfect second sight and sews and knits without glasses. She even makes her bed when permitted. She eats with impunity all manner of food, requiring no special dishes. Her memory is remarkably clear. She has enjoyed good health all her life, having taken but little medicine. Two of her sons, James, aged 64, and John, aged 61, live at Bedford, Ind. A daughter, Mrs. Catherine McCann, lives in Dubuque. She has numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren, with three great-great-grandchildren, whose father, Michael Higgins, lives at Jackson, Miss., the seventh generation of her kin which she has lived to see.

ARCOLA ITEMS.

The wheat crop from present appearance will be a failure.

Farmers around about us are busy plowing for oats and corn.

"Surprises" are all the rage among both old and young. Last Friday evening a party of young folks started for a trip of about two miles out in the country to spend the evening and surprise the folks, but what was their surprise when, on reaching the place, to find their host had retired to his peaceful slumbers, and, not wishing to intrude, quietly dispersed.

This is leap year, and our belles are taking advantage of it, but it would be a wise plan to take warning of "the silly frog" and "look before you leap."

We are glad to say that our worthy trustee, J. G. Clapesattle, has been re-elected by a larger majority that has ever been known in the history of Lake township. Not forgetting to express our sympathy for our ex-justice of the peace. But the election is past and the defeated candidates, we hope, will soon recover from their illness.

A Letter to Dr. Metcalfe.

RICHMOND, Ind., April 14, 1888.
S. C. Metcalfe, M. D.

DEAR SIR—Your note was received. In reply permit to state that the gathering of garbage has, at my request, been placed under the exclusive control of the health officer. This plan was inaugurated several years ago, and since then has been a perfect success. I have two, and sometimes three wagons, and call at every house twice in each week; in hot months three times; at hotels, restaurants, etc., once a day. I pay drivers $1.50 a day, or including team and driver $2.75 per day. I have not had a half dozen complaints of neglect in six months. It, of course, is done at the public expense, as is the other gathering under the street commissioner, who has three teams at work now, and two during hot months. Should you desire it, I will send you a copy of the ordinance regulating the gathering of garbage. Enclosed I forward one in reference to keeping streets, gutters, etc., clean. Respectfully, T. HENRY DAVIS, M. D.

A BAD WOMAN.

She Quarrels With a Neighbor About a Line Fence and Sends a Bullet in His Brain.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—Mrs. Samuel Watts, a widow, murdered a neighbor named Storm, last night. The two had quarrelled often over a line fence. Storm went to the widow's house and renewed the quarrel. While his back was turned the widow seized a gun and shot him dead.

A Disgusting Prize Fight.

ST. LOUIS, April 17.—A most unscientific, bloody and brutal prize fight took place yesterday, at St. Clair, Mo., between Arthur Flint, of St. Louis, and Hugh McManus, of Kansas City. The mill was for $1,000 a side and a purse of $1,000, skin gloves to finish under marquis of Queensbury rules. There were 200 present. Flint had decidely the best of it, knocking McManus down nearly every round until the thirteenth when he received a tremendous blow on the jaw. After that he weakened and in the seventeenth round was knocked completely out by another terrific smash on the jaw and one on the neck. Both were badly bruised.

Failures.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 17.—Curtiss and Dunton, proprietors of the oldest wholesale paper house in the city, this morning filed a mortgage to the amount of $9,540 in favor of L. G. Dunton to secure endorsements. Assets and liabilities unknown. John L. Curtiss, senior member of the firm, says it is a total wreck and that business will be wound up.

Lagrange Democrats.

LAGRANGE, Ind., April 17.—Every township was represented at the democratic convention held here Saturday, and unprecedented enthusiasm and harmony characterized the work done. Special delegations to the state and congressional conventions were selected. "Cleveland and Gray and tariff reduction," was the watchword.

Miss Coffin.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Judge Barrett in the supreme court yesterday decided against Miss Harriet Elizabeth Coffin, the eccentric young heiress, who was recently subject to proceedings de lunatico inquirendo before the sheriff. The jury found Miss Coffin to be sane. Judge Barrett says the testimony taken before the sheriff's jury all went to show that Miss Coffin was of unsound mind.

Judge Beckham.

NAPOLEON, Ohio, April 17.—Judge Wm. H. Beckham, late of Petoskey, Mich., was buried here yesterday. From 1856, when he moved here from Licking county, up to 1880, Judge Beckham was not only a prominent citizen of Napoleon, but of Northwestern Ohio. He went to Petoskey for his health and was prominent in Northern Michigan in improvements.

Lucky Baldwin's Horses Injured.

KANSAS CITY, April 17.—A special from Albuquerque, N. M., says: "It is reported here that a train containing thirty horses of Lucky Baldwin's stable has been wrecked near Peach Springs, Ari., and several of the most valuable horses badly injured.

Cleveland's College.

CLEVELAND, April 17.—Dr. James T. Edward, of Chamber's institute, Randolph, N. Y., has been chosen president of Mt. Union college, to succeed Rev. Dr. O. N. Hartshorn.

A perfectly sound body and a mind unimpaired are possible only with pure blood. Leading medical authorities indorse Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood purifying medicine in existence. It vastly increases the working and productive powers of both hand and brain.

KIDNAPPED HIS OWN DAUGHTER.

Laura Cole Carried Home for Refusing to Give Her Father Her Earnings.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., April 17.—A sensation was caused on the north side of the public square, yesterday, by an irate father kidnapping his eighteen year old daughter, in the presence of an excited crowd, all being afraid to offer resistance. Laura Cole is a bright, handsome young woman, employed in the family of J. H. Ryors.

For some time her father has been demanding her wages each week. Finally the girl refused to give him the money any longer, and he threatened to make her return home. Yesterday afternoon Laura was walking on the square, when her father, passing in a wagon, saw her. He stopped at once and seized the surprised girl.

She cried for help, but not knowing the cause of the trouble, the bystanders did not interfere. The girl caught hold of a sappling and resisted with all her power, but with threats and curses, and by main force, the poor creature was dragged into the wagon and driven away. The city marshal was sent out late in the evening to arrest the old man, who at the time of the kidnapping was evidently under the influence of liquor.

A MERE FARCE.

The Gas Company Announces a Reduction of Twenty Cents to Cash Patrons.

The Fort Wayne Gas company throws out hard.

An agent of the company is about now announcing to consumers a reduction of twenty cents per 1,000 feet on illuminating gas after May 1, to all the people who pay cash on demand.

This is about all the company will do until people refuse to patronize it, and THE SENTINEL hopes that time is not far distant.

Counting on the President.

AUSTIN, Tex., April 17.—The management of the international and interstate drill and encampment, to be held from May 10 to 19, on the occasion of the dedication of the new capitol building here, expect to have President Cleveland and wife as their principal guests. The entire Texas congressional delegation, headed by Senator Coke, will bear the invitation to the white house and, if accepted, will be the escort to Texas.

The Building Boom.

Martin Franke has been given a permit to build a one-story frame house on lot 2, Broadway, to cost $900.

Wm. Rabe to build a one-story frame house on lot 3, Broadway, to cost $450.

Josephine Noonan to build two sheds on lot 586, Hanna's addition, to cost $60.

W. H. Shorey to build an addition to house on lot 74, Williams' addition, to cost $300.

A New York letter says: "A bright, handsome boy of twenty-two or twenty-three you may occasionally see at fashionable restaurants in New York is Cyrus Field Edson, the telegraph magnate's favorite grandson. He has spent some time traveling in Europe and is now at Yale. You never see him smoke on his occasional trips to the city, for the simple reason that Mrs. Field, with whom he always stops when here, and who has a holy horror of the effect of cigarettes on young lungs, pays him, it is said, $500 a year to keep Sir Walter's weed away from his mouth. A good many young men would like to make a similar contract."

Humors run riot in the blood at this season. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels every impurity and vitalizes and enriches the blood.

SENATORS VEST, of Missouri, Sawyer, of Wisconsin, and Jones, of Nevada, are considered the story-tellers of the Senate. They are all members of the Commerce Committee, and relieve the monotony of routine work by anecdotes, witticisms, and funny stories, rivaling each other in the effort to pose as the leading humorist of the trio.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's own true laxative. This pleasant California liquid fruit remedy may be had of Theime and Gross, druggists, large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar. It is the most pleasant, prompt, and effective remedy known to cleanse the system; to act on the Liver, Kidneys, and bowels gently yet thoroughly; to dispel Headaches, Colds and Fevers; to cure Constipation, Indigestion, and kindred ills.

The Military Kirmiss will open Monday night, April 23, at the Academy of Music with a fine dinner. 17-tf

You Carry

A whole medicine chest in your pocket, with one box of Ayer's Pills. As they operate directly on the stomach and bowels, they indirectly affect every other organ of the body. When the stomach is out of order, the head is affected, digestion fails, the blood becomes impoverished, and you fall an easy victim to any prevalent disease. Miss M. E. Boyle, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., puts the whole truth in a nutshell, when she says: "I use no other medicine than Ayer's Pills. They are all that any one needs, and just splendid to save money in doctors' bills."

Here is an instance of

who lost his medicine chest, but, having at hand a bottle of Ayer's Pills, found himself fully equipped.—J. Arrison, M. D., of San José, Cal., writes:

"Some three years ago, by the merest accident, I was forced, so to speak, to prescribe Ayer's Cathartic Pills for several sick men among a party of engineers in the Sierra Nevada mountains, my medicine chest having been lost in crossing a mountain torrent. I was surprised and delighted at the action of the Pills, so much so, indeed, that I was led to a further trial of them, as well as of your Cherry Pectoral and Sarsaparilla. I have nothing but praise to offer in their favor."

John W. Brown, M. D., of Oceana, W. Va., writes: "I prescribe Ayer's Pills in my practice, and find them excellent. I urge their general use in families."

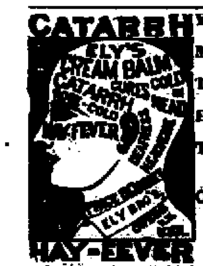

T. E. Hastings, M. D., of Baltimore, Md., writes: "That Ayer's Pills do control and cure the complaints for which they are designed, is as conclusively proven to me as anything possibly can be. They are the best cathartic and aperient within the reach of the profession."

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. Hausner, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

Thomas J. Rushing, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

Eli Robbins, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

PARTY ACHIEVEMENTS.

HOW THE DEMOCRATS MADE AND LIBERALIZED A NATION.

From Atlantic to Pacific, St. Croix to Rio Grande—Josiah Quincy—Felix Grundy—Joel R. Poinsett—William L. Marcy—Robert J. Walker—Alaska.

When the Democratic party first came into power the United States territory extended only to the Mississippi and down to latitude 31 degs., leaving all Florida and the lower part of the Gulf states to other nations; when it went out of power our territory stretched from ocean to ocean, from latitude 49 degs. to the Gulf and from the St. Croix to the Rio Grande. These are hard facts, which no party malice can obscure; they cannot be overthrown by all the casuistry of a Sherman and all the "gall" of an Ingalls. They persistently charge—and by persistent reiteration make some of their callow followers believe it—that Democracy is and always has been "without brains," "incapable of governing the country, etc.;" but they take good care not to mention the facts that this much stigmatized party acquired all our territory worth having, made this the leading nation of the continent, secured the present liberal constitutions for the states in the Mississippi valley, completed the separation of church and state, established an independent treasury after paying two national debts, and, in short, made the country in size and capacities substantially what it is to-day.

While our opponents cannot get around these facts, it has lately become a fashion with them to deny the credit to Democrats and claim these acquisitions as non-partisan. We purpose here to present just a few proofs on that point. Incidentally, however, we will say that the opposition of the Federalists and Whigs was perfectly honest and the most natural thing in the world; for, according to their theory of centralizing government, a large territory would in very truth be an immense evil. Indeed, two or three of the states are almost too large to be governed from one center; and if the Federalist doctrine had prevailed this nation could only have been governed as the Roman empire was. But on the true Democratic system a continent can be governed as efficiently as a county; for that system is that the nation should do nothing which can safely be left to the state, the state nothing that can be trusted to the county and the county nothing that the local authorities can do; while neither nation, state nor county, should interfere with personal liberty further than is absolutely necessary, leaving each man to be as far as possible his own moral agent. And we must admit that the large extent of our country has greatly aided to enforce the Democratic principle of local self government—so much so that even the Republican justices of the supreme court are getting back to it, despite all the centralization of the war period.

When Thomas Jefferson acquired Louisiana the Federalists fell afoul of him with abuse, the reading of which now makes us think of Ingalls as a gentleman. Josiah Quincy announced that the bonds of the Union were dissolved, and that Massachusetts, of which he was a representative, ought to secede. The believers in centralization were wise enough to see that such an addition of territory was hostile to their schemes, that the new states in the south and west would naturally be ardent for local self government. Young voters are apt to think that the habit of denouncing Democrats as "ignorant," "unpatriotic," "Jacobins, etc.," has sprung up since the war; they may be surprised to learn that it was much worse long before, that Jefferson particularly was pictured as a demagogue, a libertine and an atheist, and that thousands of "old women of both sexes" actually believed that they would have their Bibles taken from them and burned if he were elected president. Louisiana was admitted into the Union in 1811, against the protest of one-third of the members of the house of representatives, almost every one of them from the northeastern states. In 1819, by a treaty with Spain, we acquired the whole of Florida and got an unquestioned title to the Gulf of the states between it and the Mississippi. Out of this and the expeditions of Gen. Jackson, which preceded it, grew personal and party hatreds, which endured thirty years. Thereafter the Democrats voted almost solidly for the new states of the west, while the opposing party was generally divided.

In this period the Democratic party contained some of the grandest men in history. There, for instance, was Felix Grundy, whose name ought to be better known to this generation—a friend of humanity whose career young Democrats should study. He was born in Berkeley county, Va., Sept. 11, 1777, and died in Nashville, Dec. 19, 1840. Nearly all his active life was spent in Tennessee, and as a representative and senator from that state; and he takes high rank among those noble men who established the liberal constitutions of these western states. Any one who will compare the constitution of Indiana, for instance, with that of any of the New England or Atlantic states of the time of its adoption, will be struck with the contrast—especially as to the property rights of women, the exemption of witnesses from annoyance concerning their religion, and the complete separation of church and state; but it is a fact not generally known that traces of the old British practice of making religious distinctions between citizens lingered in some of the Federalist states to a very recent period, and that some very hot political battles were waged thereon. The honor of completing the divorce of church and state and enforcing it in the constitutions of the states admitted before the war belongs to the Democracy.

Another Democrat of note during the time the Democrats were rounding out the borders of the nation, was the refined and scholarly Joel R. Poinsett, of South Carolina. He learned medicine and the natural sciences at the famed university of Edinburgh and military engineering at Woolwich. However, his life in Great Britain only made him love his country more, and he came home to devote his life to her service. In 1809 he went to South America for President Madison to advise and assist the friends of liberty there; in 1822 he went to Mexico on a similar errand, and his able reports to Presidents Monroe and Adams give the best picture of the peculiar condition of Mexican affairs in the disturbed period following her revolution. When those reports were read and digested, all far seeing men knew that the time was near at hand when the United States must extend to the Rio Grande and Pacific. He returned to South Carolina to oppose the nullification movement, was secretary of war under President Van Buren, and furnished the statesmen of that day with many of the points which finally secured us Texas and California.

Cotemporary with the foregoing, but remaining longer in active life, were the statesmen William L. Marcy and the eminent financier, Robert J. Walker, secretary of war and secretary of the treasury in the stormy administration of James K. Polk. The establishment of the independent treasury was the greatest achievement of Van Buren's administration; but the bringing of that treasury to its highest state of efficiency and establishing the fairest system of revenue this country ever had, was the work of Robert J. Walker. The Whigs indulged in some ridicule of Marcy because he did not insist upon extending our northwestern boundary up to 50 or 40 degs.; but the solid fact remains that when he came into office we had not an undisputed title to Oregon, and when he went out we had. South of Oregon and west of Texas that administration added to the country an area twelve times the size of Ohio, a region which has given to the national treasure $1,600,000,000 in gold and silver.

In conclusion, perhaps, the other side should be heard. Well, the Republicans have bought—Alaska! Once or twice a year till 1885 they issued an official document to prove that the country was worth having; but the people are still skeptical. Mr. Wind-galls (or whatever his Kansas name is), would probably say that the common people are "without brains" to appreciate it.

That Tired Feeling

Afflicts nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

Dr. J. Buttner, of Kotzchen-Breda, has invented a contrivance which enables people to indulge in the healthy pastime of mountain climbing without leaving their rooms. This apparatus is more particularly adapted for the use of persons suffering from a defective circulation, fatty degeneration, obesity, etc. It consists of a couple of steps placed side by side and working in such a way that one rises while the other is being pressed down by the foot. Under each step is a bellows which offers a resisting power to the down tread. The labor of climbing is regulated by means of a lever brake. The steps are six inches high, and the less or greater steepness of the climb can be imitated by treading the step halfway down, or to its full depth; also by varying the amount of "luggage" carried by the operator. A self-acting pedometer registers the number of paces.

A Luxury and Necessity

For rich and poor who wish to enjoy good health, and who do not wish to resort to bitter nauseous liver medicines and cathartics, is the concentrated California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. 50c. and $1 bottles for sale by Thieme & Gross.

I suffered from a very severe cold in my head for months and used everything recommended, but could get no relief. Was advised to use Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like magic in its cure. I am free from my cold after using the Balm one week, and I believe it is the best remedy known. Feeling grateful for what it has done for me I send this testimonial.—Samuel J. honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Ath-lo-pho-ros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 5, 1887.
In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. Wilson.

Here is a composition on the whale written by a Japanese boy in a government school in Japan, which, besides being a curiosity, is very suggestive of the difficulties foreigners meet with in learning the English language: "The Whale.—The whale live in the sea and ocean of all the country. He is a large and strong in among of kinds of all the fish, and its length reach to ninety foot from seventy foots, and its color almost is a dark, and he has a large head. When swim in the up water he is so large as island. When struck the water on angry he is so voice as ring great deal thunder. If he danced make the storm without winds, and also when blow the water almost lay down the fog on the weather. His the form is proper to live, for his frontlegs make higher and his after legs is no, and the tail is a Hire that open on the up waters, and the mouth have no leaves, but have leaves that is as hard narrow beard as with horns. His bodys though is a fish, he is not a fish, but is a creature. His leaves is names whales-leaves. The men make the everything with it. Every years to seven or eight months from four or five months, the whale-men catch on the sea or ocean. He many live on the sea of North-sea-way or five island, of Hirado on Higen-Country in Japan. Written by T. Hirakawa. P. S.—The tell of the whale is more—but I do not know fully to tell."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. They are mild and pleasant in action, thorough and searching in effect, and, being sugar-coated, are easy to take. These pills never fail to give satisfaction.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. Janney, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. Jas. M. Rollins, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

The case was set for the 21st of this month, and the show allowed to proceed on its travels. Such shows as Coup's are subject to a license of $60 per day, the same as a circus license.

The richest musical treat that Fort Wayne has enjoyed for years was given to a fair audience at Y. M. C. A. hall, last night. It was beyond the pale of criticism. Every member of the family is an artist, while little Leo and Master Jamie are wonders. This is the last evening of their stay. The program is excellent. Come early and secure seats.

Daniel Bandmann, who plays "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" at the Temple Thursday, laid off his company one night last week to pay a visit to Robert Louis Stevenson at Schroon Lake. Mr. Stevenson is reported to have expressed himself as pleased with the version of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," given by Mr. Randmann, and assured him of his moral right to the play. He also encouraged him in the idea of going to London, and Mr. Bandmann agreed, in the event of such a trip, to pay royalties on the play, both for this country and abroad.

The society for the prevention of cruelty to animals should watch some of the teamsters who are engaged in making excavations for new buildings. Yesterday one of them beat a team of small mules most unmercifully because they were unable to haul a load of dirt up a hill out of an excavation, when the load could not have been moved had twice the force been pulling at the traces. He continued to beat them, however, and when forced to stop his cruelty by passers by, broke out with a stream of blasphemy that was horrible. Some of these teamsters should be taught a severe lesson. There is too much of this cruelty to the dumb animals going on all over the city and such cases should call for a prompt punishment of the heartless perpetrators.

The Richmond Palladium says: "The Fort Wayne Odd Fellows have organized a degree staff, said to be composed of first-class material, and have just purchased a paraphernalia at a cost of $1,200, which ought to enable them to present the initiation and degrees very attractively, and they will be able to do so, when they have acquired sufficient practice. A committee of brethren of Harmony lodge, Fort Wayne, visited Whitewater lodge, in this city, last night, and saw the first degree conferred upon Charley Teal. They were delighted with the work, particularly with the conception given some parts by the Whitewater staff, and obtained "pointers" that will be valuable to them. At their request, the initiatory degrees was exemplified, and that contained many features that were entirely new to them. The members of Whitewater lodge were pleased with the visit of their Fort Wayne brethren, and did all they could to make it pleasant and profitable."

Work at McCulloch park is progressing.

Mrs Thomas Reher, of Taylor street, is very ill.

Toledo is being stirred up with a Salvation Army.

Mrs. Birdie Wing has removed to 28 Chicago street.

The boys at the police station are all uniformed now.

Mr. J. K. Rhinehart, of Bluffton, is in the city to-day.

The Ohio legislature is preparing to adjourn for the year.

RUMORS OF THE RAIL

The Railroads are Called on for Their Budget of News—The Gossip of the Day.

The Pittsburg pay car came in at noon.

The Olds works are building a new boiler house.

The Bass works shipped two new stationary boilers to-day.

The train records for the last week show that freight business is improving.

The Pittsburg works are not employing any new men at present, so as to increase their forces.

The Pittsburg pay car distributed its wealth among the employes of the Pennsylvania company to-day.

The Bass works are constantly receiving large shipments of pig iron from their southern furnaces.

Victor Depray has taken a position in the Pittsburg machine shops, in place of M. Koehl, who has resigned.

Michael Kopp, inspector of patterns in the Bass works, has recovered from his recent sickness and returned to work.

Lewis Seipe, a machinist in the Bass works, has gone out into the country to superintend the erection of an engine for a saw mill.

Wm. Wurtle, a blacksmith, and C. Cook, a machinist in the Pittsburg shops, will leave to-morrow for the front on a hunting expedition.

Rear Admiral John Worden, of the United States navy, was at the Pittsburg depot last night en route to Washington from a visit with his family at Grand Rapids.

Frank M. Caldwell, former district passenger agent of the Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday returning to Indianapolis from a Sunday visit with his family at Kalamazoo.

The building and improvements that have already commenced in different parts of the city furnishes employment to many men and idle laborers and mechanics are becoming fewer every week.

A son of Wm. Robinson, of the Bass foundry, disappeared from home last Saturday, his absence creating considerable alarm. Yesterday he returned and says he is satisfied to remain at home hereafter.

Mr. J. W. Challenger, whose death occurred yesterday, had many friends among the old employes of the Pittsburg works, where he was employed several years ago. Many of them will attend his funeral.

William Lindermeyer, a moulder in the Bass works, was injured yesterday while at work. The crane flew up and hit him, cutting a severe gash. The wound was sewed up by a physician and he went to work again this morning.

Mr. Thompson, a Nickel Plate engineer, found black crape on his room door Saturday. The "boys" took this means of celebrating his first trip out for two weeks. It is rumored that Ben is struck on a handsome girl and the "boys" thus account for his lay off.

By the recent election H. S. Ives drops from sight in the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan road, and it is believed that in the same manner he will pass out of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton. It is well understood that he will have no more to say as regards the affairs of the Vandalia.

This city has one of the most flourishing railroad branches of the Young Men's Christian Association to be found in this country. It has an excellent library and numerous other attractions for railroad men. One feature is its well provided bath rooms. During the month of March 516 railroad men availed themselves of the bathing accomodations.

The impression prevails that should the Missouri Pacific people let go of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road it will fall into the hands of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. General Manager Clark, in speaking of the future of that road, and a horizontal reduction of two per cent. of the bonded indebtedness would mean an annual saving to its management of nearly $1,000,000, and that some such measure would needs be adopted, whether the Missouri Pacific or its directors operate the road. He says it would be a valuable road for any one of a half dozen roads.

The dirty and lazy tramp is becoming a familiar figure around the railroads. They are somebody's sons, and many of them could tell a history that would prove a warning to the boys that are now growing up into manhood. Placed in a line and questioned as to what led them to their present life, nine out of every ten would trace their wayward career back to the influence of rum. The majority of them are utterly and wholly worthless and would refuse to remain in any kind of permanent employment, even if they could obtain it. They are confirmed tramps, and will remain so until death ends their tramping life.

James Trythall, the well known hammer smith in the Pittsburg shops, is an active and earnest religious worker and is becoming quite prominent as an exhorter in the church. He labors at his hammer every day in the week, from early morn until eventide, and yet finds time to prepare almost every week one or two sermons which he delivers at the Mission church or other places on the Sabbath. He is a zealous Christian worker and is doing much to advance the cause of religion by his efforts. Mr. Trythall is an interesting and eloquent speaker. He is a native of England, having come to this country several years ago and has a host of warm friends who wish him "God speed" in his good work.
